The London Gazette.

Published by Authority.

From Tuesday November 25, to Saturday November 29, 1783.

AT the Court at St. James's, the 5th of November, 1783,

PRESENT,

The KING's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS by His Majesty's Order in Council, bearing Date the 6th of June last, allowing the Importation of Tobacco, being the Growth or Production of any of the Territories of the United States of America, and from thence imported directly into any of the Ports of this Kingdom, either in British or American Ships, by British Subjects, or by any of the People inhabiting in, or belonging to, the said United States, or any of them, and containing Regulations for the Landing and Warehousing, under His Majesty's Locks, all such Tobacco, it is, among other Things, directed, That the Importer shall pay down in ready Money the Duty commonly called the Old Subsidy: And whereas by an Act passed in the last Session of Parliament, intituled, "An Act for preventing certain Instruments from "being required from Ships belonging to the "United States of America, and to give to His "Majesty, for a limited Time, certain Powers "for the better carrying on Trade and Com"merce between the Subjects of His Majesty's Do"minions and the Inhabitants of the said United "States," it is, amongst other Things, enacted, That during the Continuance of the said Act, it shall and may be lawful for His Majesty in Council, by Order or Orders to be issued and published from Time to Time, to give such Directions and to make such Regulations with respect to Duties, Drawbacks or otherwise, for carrying on the Trade and Commerce between the People and Territories belonging to the Crown of Great Britain, and the People and Territories of the said United States, as to His Majesty in Council shall appear most expedient and salutary, any Law, Usage or Custom to the contrary notwithstanding: His Majesty doth therefore, by and with the Advice of His Privy Council, hereby order and direct, That the Importer of any Tobacco, being the Growth or Production of any of the Territories of the said United States of America, and imported directly from thence into the Ports of London, Bristol, Liverpool, Cowes, Whitehaven, and Greenock, or either of them, in the Manner expressed in the above recited Order, shall be at Liberty, until further Order, to enter into Bond for the Payment as well of the said Duty, commonly called the Old Subsidy, as of all the further Duties due for such Tobacco, in the Manner, and with the Allowances mentioned in the said Order: And His Majesty is hereby further pleased to order and direct, That if any Tobacco which has been or shall be so imported, during the Continuance of this Order, from the Territories of the said United States, into the said Ports of London, Bristol, Cowes, Liverpool, Whitehaven, and Greenock, shall be afterwards taken, within the Time limitted, out of the Warehouses wherein the same shall be secured under His Majesty's Locks, as directed by the before recited Order, at either of the above Ports, to be exported directly from thence, the Bonds which have been, or shall be, entered into for Payment of the said Duties, shall be discharged in Manner directed by the several Acts of Parliament in Force. And the Right Honorable the Lords Commissioners of His Majesty's Treasury are to give the necessary Directions herein accordingly.

Steph. Cottrell.

AT the Court at St. James's, the 19th of November, 1783,

PRESENT,

The KING's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS His Majesty was pleased, by His Order in Council of the 5th Instant, to direct, That the Importer of any Tobacco, being the Growth or Production of the Territories of the United States of America, and imported directly from thence, either in British or American Ships, by by British Subjects, or by any of the People inhabiting in, or belonging to, the said United States, or any of them, into the Ports of London, Bristol, Liverpool, Cowes, Whitehaven, and Greenock, or either of them, should be at Liberty, until further Order, to enter into Bond for the Payment, as well of the Duty, commonly called the Old Subsidy, as of all the further Duties due for such Tobacco, in the Manner, and with the Allowances mentioned in His Majesty's Order in Council of the 6th of June last: And whereas it has been represented to His Majesty, that some Doubts may arise concerning the Allowances to be made upon Payment of the said Duties, for which Bonds have been, or may be so entered into, upon the Importation of any such Tobacco into the Ports mentioned in the said recited Order; His Majesty is thereupon pleased, with the Advice of His Privy Council, to declare, and doth hereby declare and order, That nothing contained in His Majesty's said Order in Council of the 5th Instant, shall be construed to extend to the making any Allowance for Payment of so much of the said Duties, as the Duty commonly called the Old Subsidy, shall amount to;—And His Majesty is hereby further pleased to order, with the Advice aforesaid, that the Liberty given by the said recited Order of the 5th of this Instant November, shall, in all Respects, be extended to Tobacco imported into, and exported from, the Port of Glasgow, under the Regulations and Restrictions in the said Order mentioned: And the Right Honourable the Lords Commissioners of His Majesty's Treasury are to give the necessary Directions herein accordingly.

Steph. Cottrell.

Office of American Claims, Lincoln's-inn-fields, November 19, 1783.

THE Commissioners for enquiring into the Losses and Services of the American Loyalists, think it proper to give this Notice for the Information of all whom it may concern, that they are prohibited by the Act of Parliament from receiving any Claims after the 25th Day of March next. Such Persons therefore as intend to apply for Relief under the Act, are desired to deliver their Memorials at this Office on or before that Day.

By Order of the Commissioners,

John Forster, Secretary.

Custom House, London, October 24, 1783.

WHEREAS on Friday the 10th Instant, Richard Morze and William Ward, Officers of His Majesty's Customs, in the Port of Portsmouth, in attempting to board a Vessel called the Eagle, Cornelius Rose, Master, from Alderney, then being in Langstone Harbour, within the Limits of the said Port, were violently and forcibly obstructed by the said Rose, who at first refused them Admittance, and being armed with an Hatchet, threatened Death to any Man that should attempt to board his Vessel; but to which he at length consented; when the said Officers having got on Board were knocked down by the said Rose, and, on their making some Resistance, Morze had one of his Fingers cut from his Right Hand, and both him and Ward were much bruised and beat: That being thus violently assaulted, and apprehending their Lives in Danger, they were obliged to quit the said Vessel in order to get further Assistance, which having procured, they again attempted to go on Board, in which, after some Obstruction, they succeeded, and seized and carried the said Vessel into Portsmouth Harbour; but the said Cornelius Rose made his Escape by jumping overboard, and swimming to a Wherry, into which he was taken up, and carried off to Sea.

The Commissioners of His Majesty's Customs, in order to bring the aforesaid Rose to Justice, do hereby promise a Reward of FIFTY POUNDS to any Person or Persons who shall apprehend or cause to be apprehended the said Rose, so that he may be taken before a Magistrate and committed for the said Offence; to be paid by the Receiver-General of His Majesty's Customs upon Conviction.

By Order of the Commissioners,
Wm. Stiles, Secretary.

General Post-Office, November 18, 1783.

A SUFFICIENT Number of Packet Boats of about 200 Tons and 30 Hands are established between Falmouth and New-York to support a monthly Correspondence, and the Mails will continue to be dispatched as at present from London and from New-York upon the First Wednesday in every Month.

All Persons are however to take Notice, that instead of its being any longer left to the Option of the Writer to pay or not the Postage beforehand, there is now a Necessity for the Postage on all Letters from any Part of Great-Britain or Ireland for North America to be paid up to London, without which they must be opened and returned to the Writers, but the Packet Postage of one Shilling for a single Letter and so in Proportion between London and New-York, may or not be paid at at each Place before-hand.

And all Persons upon the Continent of Europe and of North America corresponding with each other, by these Packet Boats are to take particular Notice, that they are to put their Letters under Cover to their Friends in London.

Likewise, all Persons in Great-Britain or Ireland desirous of sending any Letters for the United States of America by the French Packet Boats, are to cause them to be put under Cover to some Correspondent at Paris.

By Command of the Postmaster-General,
Anthony Todd, Sec.

Poor Relations of Mr. Iſrael Wormall, deceaſed.

MR. Benjamin North, of Fenay, in Almondbury, near Wakefield, Yorkſhire, Son, Executor, and Heir at Law, of Mr. Benjamin North, deceaſed, who in his Lifetime was the ſurviving Truſtee named in the laſt Will and Teſtament of Mr. Iſrael Wormall, late Citizen of London, Dyer, deceaſed, being deſirous of making a proper Diſtribution (if he can) of the clear Surplus of Rents and Profits ariſen and to ariſe from the ſaid Teſtator's Real Eſtates, ſituate in Almondbury aforeſaid, to ſuch poor Relations of the ſaid Teſtator, and in ſuch Shares, as may be thought fitting, during their Lives, in Conſequence of his ſaid Will, and the Decrees or Orders in Chancery reſpecting the ſame: Notice is hereby given, that all Perſons who claim or intend to claim any Part or Parts of ſuch clear Surplus of Rents and Profits, are deſired to deliver, or cauſe to be delivered, to the ſaid Mr. North, within Two Calendar Months from the Publication hereof, proper States and Pedigrees of ſuch their reſpective Relationſhips, together with ſufficient Proofs and Vouchers to authenticate the ſame, and a full Account of their reſpective Situations and Circumſtances of Life, in order that he may be properly adviſed, and directed by Counſel thereupon.

The ſaid Teſtator died in or about September, 1737, leaving Suſanna his Widow, who afterwards married one Mr. Delander, a Watch-maker, and died in 1741. The ſaid Teſtator's Siſter, Mrs. Elizabeth Bradbury, Widow, who ſurvived him, was his Heir at Law, and died in about 1757. He likewiſe left a Siſter in Law ſurviving him, who was Elizabeth, once Wife of his then deceaſed elder Brother, Mr. Iſaac Wormall, of London, Packer; and who, after the ſame Iſaac's Death, married one Mr. Samuel Torin, and died his Widow in 1775. The ſaid Teſtator had ſerved his Apprenticeſhip with one Mr. Aurelius Hudſon, a Dyer, who is ſuppoſed to have ſurvived him. And it is now at preſent apprehended that the ſaid Teſtator's Father, Grandfather, and Great Grandfather were as follow: The Father, Iſrael, born at Almondbury aforeſaid; the Grandfather, Iſaac, and the Great Grandfather, Iſaac; both of them buried there, and who had reſided (more or leſs) at that Place; and that the ſaid Teſtator's Father had ſeveral Siſters, of whom one married a Mr. Foxcroft, another married a Mr. Swain, and another married a Michael Middlebrook.
